The Joy of the Resurrection

Christ is risen! Χριστός Ανέστη! Let this greeting be in our hearts, at the center of our being, and on our lips to all we meet! I have to say rejoice in the risen Lord. I thank each and everyone of you for making this Holy and Great Week and Pascha beautiful. Thank you for attending every service you were able to attend. Thank you for participating in the services. Thank you for bringing your children. Thank you for loving the Lord Jesus and walking with him all week long. Thank you to the parish council and everything they did. Thank you to the Philoptochos Ladies and all the preparations they did. Thank you to our beautiful choir, who shared their love for God and made our worship so rich! Thank you to the parents who brought our wonderful youth to the Holy Friday retreat. Thank you to all who helped with the Holy Friday Retreat. Thank you to the children for showing their wonderful spirit in participating in the worship. Thank you to the readers and those that helped them get ready. Thank you to the acolytes who were strong in their faith and participation. Thank you to the cooks who helped prepare the Pascha feast. Thank you to the myrrh bearers who show such love for Christ. Thank you to our seminarian, Nicholas Manuel, for giving and helping with everything all week long.

Our Orthodox Church celebrates the life-giving Resurrection of Christ in true splendor! The entire week is considered the Paschal Feast, all the way through Anti-Pascha, the Sunday of St. Thomas. This year we have a double celebration in that April 23rd is the feast day of St. George the Great Martyr also.

The hymnology of our Orthodox Church says it all! The 8th Ode of the Orthros of Pascha expresses it well.

Ode viii. Heirmos.

This is it, the Day which is chosen and holy, * Day One of the Sabbaths. * It is the queen-day, the Lord's Day, * and the Feast of all feasts, * and the Festival above every festival, * on which we extol Christ and bless Him to the ages. (2)

Troparia.

Glory to Your holy Resurrection, O Lord.

Come on this illustrious day of Resurrection and day of Christ's Kingdom, let us receive the communion of the joy divine from the new fruit of the vine, for eternal life, and highly extol Him as God unto the ages. (2)

Glory.

Lift up your eyes round about You and see, O Zion. Behold, like beacons shining with light divine have your children come to you from the West, from the North and from seaward and from the East. In you they extol Christ and bless Him to the ages.

(SD)

Both now.

Father, ruler over all, and Logos and Spirit, O Nature divine, in three Hypostases united, transcending essence and divinity, in You have we been baptized; we praise and bless and worship You, unto all the ages.

(SD)

Katavasia.

This is it, the Day which is chosen and holy, * Day One of the Sabbaths. * It is the queen-day, the Lord's Day, * and the Feast of all feasts, * and the Festival above every festival, * on which we extol Christ and bless Him to the ages.(2)

Pascha is the Feast of feasts indeed! In the troparia, we are urged to receive Christ's body and blood with joy divine. The next hymn speaks of spreading the joy of the resurrection in every direction, the good news of salvation in Jesus Christ! The last troparion exalts the Holy Trinity in the Paschal feast. And lastly, we chant the hiermos twice for our joy cannot be contained. Christ is risen! Χριστός Ανέστη! May this joy continue for 40 days and beyond.

Love always, Fr. Jon

From the Parish Council President Barbara Reynolds

Χριστὸς Ἀνέστη! Christ is Risen!

Thank you for all you did to make Holy Week a truly wonderful experience.

Thank you, Fr. Jon and Deacon Tom, for leading us in all the beautiful services.

I would like to thank the Parish Council for the hours of work on pangari duty, general helping making sure everything was organized, treasury duties, and preparing, cleaning, and cooking for the Agape picnic. I am sure there was much more.

Thank you to the Philoptochos members for the beautiful flowers, decoration of the church, dying of the eggs, and meals during Holy Week.

Thank you, Michael and the choir, for the beautiful music through all of Holy Week, and for teaching the parish some of the hymns.

Thank you. Alexandros for all the technology help, printing of the service books, and for organizing the youth readings on Holy Wednesday night.

Thank you. Koula and Melissa for arranging the youth readings on Holy Friday night.

Thank you to Pam and Renée for organizing the Myrofores on Holy Friday.

Thank you, Fr. Jon, Presbytera Barbara, Deacon Tom, Diakonissa Stacie, Maria Fernandez, Nicholas and Cameron for the wonderful youth retreat. Also thank you, Fr. Jon for inviting Nicholas Manuel, the seminarian, to be with us for the week. He added a lot to our Holy Week experience.

Thank you, Kay and Jaime for preparing the candles used by all the faithful during Holy Week.

Thank you to all our parishioners that attended the beautiful Holy Week services. The services wouldn't have been so beautiful without all of you there.

I am feeling blessed to be a part of a church that made this truly a blessed Pascha and Holy Week.

For his participation in our Holy Week, Philoptochos gave Nicholas Manuel $500 and the Parish Council gave him $1,000 ($535 was from the tray passed).

Please forgive me for anyone I left off this list.

In His service,
Barbara

Χριστός Ανέστη! Christ is Risen!

Pascha 2017 was a beautiful success. We want to thank all the members of our community who worked tirelessly to prepare for it. From the palm cross making and Palm Sunday luncheon, to the red egg dying and the reception on Holy Friday Evening as well as Holy Saturday night. Our Philoptochos members as well as the community at large, worked behind the scenes to make sure we had flowers decorating our icons and our Kouvouklion holding the Epitaphios. Also thank you to everyone who donated towards the expenses of the flowers on the kouvouklion.

We are looking forward to the Greek Festival at the end of this month, and we hope everyone will be back at work in full force.

May 7, 2017 will be our year-end celebration and our election meeting, please see the flyer later in this newsletter for the details. We hope to see everyone there! All Ladies ages 18 and up are welcome to join us!

LOVE

Angelique Skandalakis and Kay Skandalakis

I am happy to announce that Pam Calhoun will be taking over as the leader for LOVE! Please welcome her as she makes this transition. I would like to thank all of the LOVE families for participating in our events these past few years. Mia and I will miss everyone when we leave in June, and we hope to be able to come and visit often!

Hellenic School
Anestis Logothetis

The Greek School participated in the Greek Independence Day Celebration on Sunday, March 26. The students marched in the hall by the sounds of Greek martial music and then each one recited a short poem. The speaker was Stella Vallianos who gave a short but inspiring talk about the Greek Revolution from more than 400 years of slavery under the Ottoman Empire. Greek Dancing followed by the youth of our community, the Romiosini and Zoyra Dancers. A very nice luncheon was prepared by Chris's Restaurant. At the end everyone in the Hall sang the Greek National Anthem, We were delighted to see so many of our Parishioners were present and supported our youth.

Just a reminder that there will be no Greek school classes the Friday, May 19 which falls during our Festival.

Graduation will take place on Sunday, June 4 along with the Sunday School students.

Thank You to the entire Community for a job well done!

Forever YoungKay Skandalakis*

Forever Young will meet on Tuesday, May 2 at 11:45 AM sharp at the Olympia Restaurant.

Anyone 55 and older is welcome to join us!

HOPE/JOY

Joyce Patsalos, Sophia Brewer, Jaime Saffo & Renée Karonis Psilos

Hard to believe that we are already coming towards the end of another season!

We have really enjoyed getting together with everyone this year and participating in all of the fun activities that were planned! But, we still have a few events left that we am hoping everyone will participate in before we say our good-byes for the summer!

The Greek Festival is right around the corner. HOPE/JOY will once again be in charge of the lemonade/sno-cone stand. We will need everyone's help in order to once again make this a success! The dates are May 19-21. We will be sending out a signup sheet for people to volunteer to help. Usually it consists of 3-4 kids and a couple of adults with approximate 2 hours shift increments. Please be on the lookout for the signup sheet in your inboxes soon and help out where you can!

We will have an end-of-the-year beach gathering at Wrightsville Beach at Access #4 on June 4 at 2:00 pm. Please go ahead and mark your calendars for this also, so that we may all enjoy some fun in the sun and fellowship to end our 2016-2017 season! More information will follow after we wind down from the festival.

It takes a special person to teach and each of you are very special to our church. Next time you see them, say thank you and give them a hug!

Graduation Sunday is fast approaching! The date is June 4! If you have a senior, please come see me. We will be sending an email soon with what is needed to honor your child's accomplishment.

Thank you for all you do and for a fabulous year!

Dance GroupsZaharoula Katsikis*

The April 23 Parent & Dancer meeting to review the 2017-2018 Dance Year was very well attended. Our next meeting will be Sunday, September 10.

The meeting discussed the requirements for Dancers who plan to participate at the Greek Festival AND the rest of the year. Highlights include practice requirements, church attendance, and behavior. We want our children to have a full spiritual life as well as enjoy the fellowship of dancing.

ALL dancers (ALL groups) need to be ready at the side stage 30 minutes before scheduled dance times for the Greek Festival which begin:

May 19: 6pm and 8pm

May 20: 1:30pm, 5:30pm, and 8pm

May 21: 1:30pm and 4:30pm

There are specific costume requirements for each festival dance so please ask Zaharoula or Katerina Katsikis if you have any questions.

The practice schedule for Zoyra & Romiosini has been distributed. The practice schedule for the youngest dancers will be managed by Alexandros Theodoropoulos.

Christ Is Risen!

Christ Is Risen from the dead, by death
He has trampled down death, and on those in the tombs He has bestowed life.

After discussing Greek Fest. specifics, the rest of the year was discussed at high level terms. Romiosini & Zoyra will be closed to new members this year so the current members can perfect their technique before this year's Hellenic Dance Festival in Orlando, FL.

Any new dancers who have not been to HDF before are welcome to join the new dance group which will require all members to be aged 7 years and older. This group is truly for all novice dancers and the focus will be technique, style, and footwork around folk style traditional Greek dancing. The goal is to enjoy dancing with no pressure to compete; however, if at least 6 new members commit to HDF attendance, the goal is to be competition ready.

Reevaluation of all levels will take place for the 2018-2019 year to see if any dancers need to be moved into different groups.

Dance practice schedules will be distributed the first of the month beginning June 1. The first summer practice will be Sunday, June 18 from 12-2PM.. Fall dance practice will begin Sunday, September 10 from 12-2PM.

More details regarding the Brunswick County Intercultural Festival - September 30 - will be distributed later.

St. Stephens Summer Camp
Alexia Porzio & Doug Brown

Dear future campers and families,
St. Stephen's is quickly approaching and registration is underway. The website for camp is: <https://atlmopolis.org/st-stephens-summer-camp>

After speaking to many families, it appears that most of our youth are looking to go on week 4, which is July 16-22. Several sessions are already filled and partially closed so please register ASAP if you have not already.

GOYA and the Parish Council are very pleased to announce that we are able to help support campers this year. Your dedication to our fundraisers has blessed us with a budget that will allow us to help defer half of the registration cost of St. Stephen's summer camp. Yearly Registration is normally $400 per camper with a $25.00 discount for siblings. This year, we will pay half, $200 of the registration for all campers. When you register, please pay the full amount and print your receipt. Then you will be able to submit your receipt to St. Nicholas for reimbursement. We are blessed to have such a supportive Parish Council and I hope to see many of our youth attend St. Stephen's Summer camp.

Transportation is still to be determined.

If you have any questions please feel free contact Alexia Porzio or Doug Brown.

The Department of Inter-Orthodox, Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America is inviting graduate and recent post-graduate students to apply for its fellowships at the United Nations.

“Our programs at the U.N. have been growing every year and continue to effectively represent the Church in civil society,” said the Rev. Two applicants will be selected for yearlong stipended fellowships that will begin in the fall of 2017. The fellows will work in New York City in the department’s office at the Church Center for the United Nations.

Fellows will focus their work at the U.N. in three main areas: human rights, environment, or humanitarianism.

Among other activities, fellows will have the opportunity to join and participate in the work of nongovernmental organization committees at the U.N., assist in formulating oral and written statements and interventions, plan and host events during U.N. Economic and Social Council functional commissions, and participate in panel discussions at future biennial national clergy-laity congresses.

The Department launched its Faith-based Diplomacy and Advocacy Initiative in 2015 with funding from The Archbishop Iakovos Leadership 100 Endowment Fund. Since then, a total of three fellowships have been granted.

For more information about the program and to apply for a fellowship, visit un.goarch.org/fellowship.
