On the Blessedness of Orthodoxy – The Lives of the Saints

For several years I purchased a spiritual compendium that was published every year. It included a life of one or more of the saints of our Orthodox Church and a reflection and the fasting regiment for each day. It was a great blessing to me. Later I discovered the Prologue of Ochrid by St. Nikolai Velimirovich. This is considered a spiritual classic from which you can drink the waters of salvation.

This text is so rich, you can read from it again and again and still feel refreshed by the words of the saint. St. Nikolai lived in the 20th century and passed from this life to the next in 1956. His writings are some of the recent treasures of Orthodoxy and continue to feed the flock of Christ to this day. In the Prologue of Ochrid, he writes about the lives of the saints for each day of the year, a hymn of praise, which is poetry related to the saints, a reflection, two or three points of contemplation, and lastly, a homily, which is on one verse from Scripture.

Capturing the Holy Spirit of God and the spirit of the Fathers of the Church, St. Nikolai took up pen and paper in the 1920s while dwelling in the 10th century monastery of St. Naum on the shores of Lake Ochrid. In this ancient and beautiful setting, he put to good use the great gift of God given to him – writing. The result is the spiritual classic we have now translated from Serbian into English.

The lives of the saints are a great treasure to us as Orthodox Christians. Through their struggles, witness, love, great faith, miracles, and embodiment of the Gospel, we become inspired to live a life in Jesus Christ that is worthy of the calling by which we are called. The more we read the lives of the saints, the more we understand what it means to be a true followers of Jesus. Infused with the Holy Spirit we become true cross bearers and believers! There are many lives of saints I could share with you. Here below is the life of St. Euthymios the Great – January 20th.

Of noble and distinguished parents, Euthymius was born in the Armenian town of Melitene near the Euphrates river about the year 377 A.D.. He was the only child, a son, born in answer to the prayer of his mother Dionisiya, who had a heavenly vision regarding the birth of Euthymius. From his youth, he lived a life of asceticism, at first in the proximity of his town [Melitene] but then, after he visited Jerusalem at age twenty-nine, in the desert between Jerusalem and Jericho called Pharan. He filled his days and nights with prayer, internal thoughts about God, contemplation and physical exertion. Around him many disciples gathered some of whom are glorious saints, such as Cyriac the Hermit, St. Sabas the Sanctified, Theotictus and others. By God's gift, Euthymius was a great miracle worker; he expelled demons, healed the gravely ill, brought water to the desert, multiplied bread and prophesied. He taught monks the love of labor saying, "If you eat bread, not of your own labor, know that you are eating of someone else's labor." When some of the younger monks wanted to fast more than others, he forbade them to do so and commanded them to come to the communal table so that they would not become prideful as a result of their excessive fasting. He also said that it was not good for a monk to move from place to place, for he said, "A tree frequently transplanted does not bear fruit. Whoever desires to do good, can do it from the place where he is."

About love, he said, "What salt is to bread, love is to other virtues." During the first week of the Honorable Fast [Lenten Season], he retreated to the desert and remained there in solitary silence and godly-thoughts until just before the Feast of the Resurrection. During his lifetime, a large monastery [Lavra] was established in the proximity of his cave which later, throughout the centuries, was completely filled with monks as a beehive is filled with bees. His final command was that the monastery always adhere to hospitality and that the gates of the monastery never be closed. He died at the age of ninety-seven. The Patriarch of Jerusalem was in attendance at his funeral. The patriarch waited all day long until the great masses of people reverenced the body of the saint and only in the evening were they able to complete the Office for Burial for the Dead. On the seventh day following his death, Euthymius appeared radiant and rejoicing to Domentian, his disciple. The Venerable Euthymius, in truth, was a true "son of Light." He died in the year 473 A.D.

CONTEMPLATION

To contemplate the Lord Jesus as Light:

- 1. As a Light to my life; as a Light to mankind; as a Light to every creature;
- 2. As a Light, especially in the darkness of fear and suffering;
- 3. As a Light in the hour of death and after death; a Light in eternity.

HOMILY

About the only Light in darkness

"I am the Light of the world" (St. John 8:12).

Since the beginning of the world and time, no one who was ever born dared to speak these words. There were men and there are men who say: "I bring light!" But only one dared to say: "I am the Light!" Only the Lord Jesus could have spoken those words boldly and convincingly. His short life on earth and His long history, over two-thousand years, completely justified these words. He is the Light of Truth. He is the Light of Righteousness and He is the Light of Life.

He is the Light of Truth because He revealed in Himself the truth of the true nature of God and the true nature of man; and the relationship of man to man and the relationship of man toward God. Heaven and earth shall pass away and His words will not pass away for heaven and earth both came into existence by His word and His word is from Him and with Him always and will not pass away. ["Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away" St. Matthew 24:35 - St. Mark 13:31].

He is the Light of Righteousness because He revealed the might of righteousness and the weakness of unrighteousness. He revealed that in the brightest light, by that which He spoke, by that which He did, and by that which He experienced and overcame the unrighteous ones. He revealed that through His Church in the course of twenty centuries through His numerous righteous saints and martyrs for righteousness sake. Righteousness is from God, and in the long life of history it can never be defeated. Unrighteousness is from helpless beings. Unrighteousness quickly rushes out to the rampart with its triumphant banner but, at the same time, it is quickly overthrown into the grave.

He is the Light of Life. His words illuminate life. His works illuminate life. His victory illuminates life, especially His resurrection, as the most luminous sun by its bright light illuminates life and disperses death as a weak shadow.

O Lord Jesus, Light Most-Luminous, Sun of Truth, Sun of Righteousness and Sun of Life, illuminate us sinners and unworthy ones!

To You be glory and thanks always. Amen.

All of the lives of the saints in the Prologue of Ochrid are available on line through the website: www.rocor.org.au Click on the first website listed, click on Orthodoxy at the top of the page and click on Prologue from Ochrid. Once there, go to the date you wish to see and click on 'Show Day.' May God bless us and inspire us through the lives of the saints!

The Spring General Assembly will be held on February 12 after church. Two of the key items being covered are:

- 1. The results of the Facility Improvement survey that was completed by the members of our parish.
- 2. The 2017 Budget approval.

We look forward to seeing of you all there.

This year we are asking charities to fill out an application for sponsorship by the festival. If you are interested in sponsoring a charity for the charitable contribution given by the festival, please have the charity fill out the application attached at the end of the newsletter and return it to the festival committee before February 14 for their consideration.

The Parish Council would like to offer our congratulations to all of our dancers and their leaders on the results of the recent Hellenic Dance Festival! The Zoyra group received the gold award and the Romiosini group received the bronze award! Thank you St. Nicholas dancers for your hard work. We are so proud of you. Furthermore, we offer our congratulations and our gratitude to our late and dear Nota Dukas for earning yet another costume award for the Thracian costumes of our Zoyra group. Thank you, Nota, for all you did for our dancers and our church.

In his book, "The Orthodox Way" Archimandrite Kallistos Ware recounts the story of the 4th century desert father St. Sarapion the Sindonite who "once on a pilgrimage to Rome was told of a celebrated recluse, a woman, who lived always in one small room, never going out. Skeptical about her way of life – for he himself was a great wanderer – Sarapion called on her and asked: 'Why are you sitting here?' To this she replied: 'I am not sitting, I am on a journey.'" Beginning on February 5 we too begin our journey through Great Lent to Pascha as the Triodion begins. May God bless our journey.

Our next General meeting will be held on Sunday February 19, immediately following the coffee hour/HDF celebration. Everyone is asked to bring in items for donation to "Nourish NC."

All women 18 and up are welcome to join our meeting. Come see what we are doing!

Thank you to our Organizers for this Annual Fundraising Event.

Outreach & Evangelism

Deacon Tom and Diakonissa Stacie Fernandez

"Don't tell me 'it is impossible for me to influence others.' If you are a Christian, it is impossible for you NOT to influence others! Just as the elements that make up your human nature do not contradict each other, so also in this matter – it belongs to the very nature of a Christian that he influences others. So, do not offend God. If you say, 'the sun cannot shine,' you offend Him. If you say, 'I, a Christian cannot be of service to others,' you have offended Him and called Him a liar. It is easier for the sun not to shine than for a Christian not to do so. It is easier for light itself to be darkness than for a Christian not to give light. So don't tell me it is impossible for you as a Christian to influence others, when it is the opposite that is impossible. Do not offend God. If we arrange our affairs in an orderly manner, these things will certainly follow quite naturally. It is impossible for a Christian's light to lie concealed. So brilliant a lamp cannot be hid-

StJohnChrysostom, Homily 20 on The Acts of The Apostles

On Wednesday, February 15, we will have a very dynamic guest speaker for our Family Night.

The Reverend Dr. Dimitrios Moraitis, Dean of Saint Spyridon Greek Orthodox Cathedral in Worcester, Massachusetts will share with us: "Overcoming Our Passions and Addictions through the Prayers and Services of Great Lent, in the Orthodox Church."

He will share in ways that minister to all ages, from teens to golden agers. Having had many years of experience in the priesthood, Fr. Dimitrios will engage us, inspire us and challenge us to pursue our Lord, Jesus and reach out to the world around us.

So mark your calendar to join us for supper at 6 PM and Fr. Dimitrios' encouraging presentation. Feel free to bring a friend! Any questions? Contact the church office, Deacon Tom or Stacie at 910-622-3515.

Oratorical Festival

St. John Chrysostom says that the souls of children are soft and delicate like wax. If right teachings are impressed upon them from the beginning, then with time, these impressions harden as in the case of a waxen seal.

I found this on a very cool blog called illumination learning. One of the entries is a practical guide to prayer with children. It is a fantastic read and very helpful to all of us parents whose goal is to raise our children to be prayerful warriors. Look it up at: http://illumination-learning.com

It is a great resource!

We are all very excited about Oratorical Festival! This years date is Sunday, March 5! The district Oratorical Festival will be held in Winston-Salem on Saturday, March 18 so mark your calendars!! Thank you for all your support and encouraging your children to participate. This is a great opportunity for them to learn about their faith and feel comfortable speaking in front of an audience.

February is the month of LOVE......Feel love, be love and most importantly give love...

Thank U for being in CH RCH! Grateful to be in His Service

Hellenic School

Anestis Logothetis

The Hellenic School takes place every Friday from 5 to 6:30 PM at the Church. We have classes from kinder garden age up to high school and for adults as well. Learning Greek is the purpose and we encourage parents to consider sending their kids to expose them to their heritage.

There will be a celebration of the Greek Letters on Sunday February 29 in the Church Hall right after the Divine Liturgy. The Greek Letters day is associated with the three Hierarchs, Saints Basil, Gregory and Chrysostom. They are the ones that contributed the most in using the Greek language to spread and interpret Christianity. The speaker for this occasion is George Stephanou, a recent arrival to our Community and very active in our Church as a chanter and member of the choir.

On Saturday February 11 the St. Valentine Dance will take place in our Church Hall co-sponsored by the Greek School and AHEPA. The music will be provided by the Paschalis band as in the past. There will be a delicious buffet dinner with lots of Greek specialties to be followed by desserts and a raffle of Greek goodies and prizes. The money raised will support the Greek School and the AHEPA charities. The whole Community is invited, the young and old, to enjoy good dancing, good food and good fellowship. See the flyer towards the end of this month's newsletter.

Be involved. Transplant hope.

Join the Be The Match Registry®.

Patients need you! For thousands with blood cancers like leukemia or other diseases like sickle cell anemia, a marrow transplant is their only hope for life. If you have diverse ancestry, patients especially need you because they are most likely to match someone who shares their heritage.

Nick Dombalis is a 66-year-old husband and father of four. He is devoted to his family and is a lifelong Raleigh resident. Nick has been active in both civic and community affairs. Anyone who knows Nick knows first and foremost, knows that he is a giver – now he needs your help! Nick was diagnosed with Myelodysplastic Syndrome at age 64. Since his diagnosis, he has undergone chemotherapy; however, a bone marrow transplant is his only chance for a cure. Nick's Greek ancestry is making it difficult to find a match for him.

Nick is turning to the Greek American and Mediterranean community for help.

YOU could be his "needle in a haystack" and provide him the opportunity to live a full life and see his children have their own children.

Please join the Be The Match Registry, a database of volunteers who are willing to donate stem cells or bone marrow if contacted. It only takes simple paperwork and a cheek swab to join. Those of Mediterranean descent, including Greek Americans, are severely underrepresented in the registry. We encourage you to learn more and potentially be a match for Nick or someone else who is waiting for their match. You do not need to be of Mediterranean ancestry to participate.

YOU could be THE ONE to SAVE A LIFE!

Just fill out a registration form; Swab the inside of your cheek; and Add your tissue type to the registry!

Your Mediterranean heritage can save lives!
